

NER JCoS Conference Crier

Issue 1 - Baltimore Area and National Capitol Area Councils Jewish Committees on Scouting - Oct 2017

2018 Northeast Region Jewish Committee on Scouting Conference Planning

Planning for the 2018 NER JCoS Conference has started. If you are interested in making a presentation at the conference, please send an email message with the attached Program Proposal Form to Philip Sternberg, NER JCoS Chairman, and Rabbi Rachmiel Tobesman, Conference Chairman, at <2018NER-program@ncacjcos.org>.

Registration and Cost

To register for 2018 NER JCoS Conference, please send an email message with the attached 2018 NER JCoS Conference Registration Form to <2018NER-registration@ncacjcos.org>. The cost of the conference will again be $36.00 per participant. Participants with financial need should contact the NER JCoS Chairman, Philip Sternberg <phil.sternberg@gmail.com>. The fee pays for supplies, a patch, and a kosher breakfast and lunch.

2018 Northeast Region Jewish Committee on Scouting Conference Who, What, Where, When

The National Capital Area Council (NCAC) JCoS and the Baltimore Area Council (BAC) JCoS are jointly hosting the 31st NER JCoS Conference. The goal of the Conference is to have participants return to their respective units, councils, and Jewish Committees energized with new ideas to revitalize Jewish Scouting throughout the region. The Conference will be Sunday, March 11, 2018 from 9:00 am to 4:30 pm at the Yeshiva of Greater Washington, 2010 Linden Lane, Silver Spring, MD 20910.

What's New

The conference attendees may request Shabbat Home Hosting and may have an opportunity to camp in a Shomer Shabbat environment prior to the Conference. Attendees can also participate in a special program at the National Museum of American Jewish Military History in Washington, DC. Motel, automobile, train and air transportation information will be announce in the next issue.