

THE NATIONAL JEWISH COMMITTEE ON SCOUTING

Mortimer L. Schiff Quality Jewish Committee Award

The Mortimer L. Schiff Quality Jewish Committee Award recognizes local Jewish Committees on Scouting that meet standard objectives in the support of Scouting for Jewish Youth in their local council. It is named after Mortimer L. Schiff, a member of the first BSA National Council and a former president of the BSA.

Recognitions are presented by the National Jewish Committee on Scouting (NJCOS) region chair. The award includes a "Scouting Serves the Jewish Community" plaque for the committee and pins for each committee member.
