The Talmud Torah Award

The National Jewish Committee on Scouting would like to honor Scouts who have earned all the religious emblems during their tenure in Scouting the religious emblems they were eligible.

Eligibility:

The Talmud Torah:

1. Recognizes Jewish Scouts that have earned all their Jewish Religious Emblems during their tenure in Scouting for which they were eligible.
2. (Example: if a Scout joined as a Scout, having earned the Ner Tamid and Etz Chaim would qualify them).
3. (Example: if a Scout joined as a Lion Scout, they must earn all five Religious Emblems to qualify them).
4. (Example: If a Scout joined as a Webelos, they must have earned the Aleph, Ner Tamid and Etz Chaim to qualify them).

Submit this Talmud Torah Award Application electronically to awards@jewishscouting.org, the Chair of the Awards and Emblems Committee of the National Jewish Committee on Scouting.

The Decision of the Awards and Emblems Committee is final.
